HOME SHOW

First Annual - CHBA-CVI Home Show – Theme - Renovations

September 26th, 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Vancouver Island Conference Center

Keynote Speaker – Jim Caruk, Real Renos

This is something I have personally wanted to attack for a long time and I am excited that we are moving forward with this. The association has hired Karen and Stephanie of Toro Marketing to organize the Home Show but as always and again, they can't make this a success without your help. The intent of the Home Show is to promote ourselves to the consumers to let them know who CHBA is and what we do and also to launch the RenoMark program.

We are extremely excited to have Jim Caruk, host of Real Reno's on HGTV as our keynote speaker and to present throughout the day.

As I mentioned, Karen and Stephanie of Toro Marketing (250-729-6788) are organizing the Home Show and in the next few weeks will be calling upon you (and I would like you to accommodate them) to book your trade show booth space and to discuss sponsorship opportunities. This is a CHBA members' only tradeshow for the general public with free admission for the day.

Please start talking it up now with your suppliers to encourage them to be a part of our first annual CHBA-CVI Home Show.

CHBA-Nanaimo Affordable House Project

Chris Erb, John Horn, Penny McMann, Jim Spinelli (Nanaimo Affordable Housing) and Rob MacCallum at the site of 2104 Bowen Road, the Affordable Housing Project. The ribbon cutting ceremony is scheduled for July. All tenants moving into the complex have a permanent disability which means that they have a maximum shelter allowance of $375 per month. Cost of the units is $296.00 per month including utilities. There are now 20 very happy people who will have a safe, affordable home thanks to Doug Bromage's initiation, SupErb Construction's commitment to the project and the support of the Canadian Home Builders' Association – Central Vancouver Island.

There will be no Newsletter in August - The next General Meeting is Thursday, September 10th at the Coast Bastion Inn.

Summer has arrived, take the time to enjoy it!
